What is Homeopathy?

Homeopathy is a two hundred year old holistic system of medicine which uses micro-doses of natural substances such as plants and minerals to assist the body's innate healing mechanisms

Homeopathy is a system of medicine that activates and strengthens the immune system that has been bombarded and overworked. The homeopathic physician takes into consideration the physical, the emotional and the mental symptoms that a person tends to express. The person's whole well being is strengthened

Homeopathic medicines are different because they are holistic, good for modern times where stress must be taken into account in making a prescription. By also improving the overall health status of the individual, making sure the digestive system, the hormonal or endocrine system, the lymphatic systems which cleanse the body are working properly; the body becomes capable of repairing and defending itself on a daily basis.

WHERE IS YOUR MAKEUP REALLY MADE?

With all the news about health concerns with products made overseas it is important for consumers to be aware of where products are made. Make sure you check out the label to ensure products are MADE IN CANADA; otherwise you could be purchasing items that were made in a less regulated environment and using ingredients prohibited by Health Canada.
